

I oppose any FCC rule change that would in any way conflict with or force a change in Indiana's telephone privacy law as it exists today.